

HALF MILLION TONS OF COAL TO PASS OVER SANTA FE ROAD

J. Pierpont Morgan and B. P. Cheney added 5,860 additional acres of coal lands to their holdings in Colorado and New Mexico during the past week and are preparing to enter the coal business in the west on a mammoth scale.

Ex-Congressman George W. Cook, who is acting in an advisory capacity for the two interests in these deals, has confirmed the reports. The two magnates, in company with Colonel J. A. Owenby, have now secured the control of 30,000 acres of coal land belonging to one group.

The purchase, which was made during the past week, was for what is known as the Smith ranch. It joins the present holdings of the Wootton Land and Fuel company on the south and west and will be made a part of the holdings of that company located south of Trinidad.

These coal lands are to be opened and developed at once and the company will ship coal to Oklahoma, Texas and the south and to California. A deal has been made with the government for 500,000 tons of coal to be used by the navy, and shipment on this order will begin within a few weeks. The three men have spent $700,000 up to date in preparing to enter the western coal markets and are preparing to further increase their holdings at an early date. General Cook states that three mines are to be opened and the last of these will be ready for operation in about two weeks. The coal will be hauled out over the Santa Fe on tracks which are now being laid to the mines.

It is understood that the company is owned exclusively by Morgan, Cheney and Colonel Owenby, and that there will be no stock or bond issues made and that no outside interests will be associated with the company. It is understood that the 30,000 acres owned in the one group represents only a part of the holdings secured by the company in this section and that in reality they have indirectly secured coal beds larger than the combined coal fields of Pennsylvania.

Recently Morgan and his associates obtained control of a large tract of land in New Mexico which was held by the St. Louis, Rocky Mountain & Pacific company, and he is understood to have also become heavily interested in the bonds of that company, which owns in fee simple and leases, something like 500,000 acres of coal lands. D. Ogden Mills, a director in the Southern Pacific, was at first associated with Morgan in the coal deals, but it is understood that he has sold out his interest to Morgan and his associates and is no longer connected with the company.

The order for 500,000 tons of coal to be used by the United States navy is considered one of the most important deals made in the west recently. The coal is to be used on the war vessels for the purpose of testing its quality and if it comes up to the reports made by the government experts it is believed that New Mexico will in the future supply practically all of the coal used by the government. The coal was declared by the representatives of the geological survey as being the best adapted for the use of the navy of any in the world on account of its keeping qualities.

It has been known for several years that Morgan and his associates were buying large tracts of land in the west, but it had been given out that he was preparing to establish large game preserves. It is considered almost certain that the deals are preliminary to plans of a much larger nature and that the development of Colorado and New Mexico coal fields on an enormous scale will follow the completion of the Panama canal.

STILL ANOTHER ACCOUNT OF THE BIG DEAL BY DR. MORLEY

From the Chicago Tribune.

A formal real estate transfer made in the routine of the county recorder's office yesterday revealed the story of a Chicago minister of the gospel who has gained a fortune of $500,000 during his spare time from preaching. Four years ago he left Chicago with slender means to nurse a daughter back to health. Today he is the owner of landed estates and an exclusive metropolitan apartment building.

The hero of this fairy tale of finance and religion is the Rev. Richard A. Morley, a Methodist Episcopal pastor who was stationed for several years in Chicago and Oak Park churches. The story transpired in the purchase by the minister of the Kenwood, the apartment hotel at Kenwood avenue and 47th street, for $400,000.

The Rev. Mr. Morley, who is 45 years old, was pastor of the Moreland church at Walnut street and 49th avenue, and later of the Sheffield avenue church on the north side. Later still he was pastor of the Euclid avenue church in Oak Park.

Goes West to Save Child.

In 1904 the health of his daughter began to fail and soon afterward he exchanged pastorates with the Rev. A. C. Geyer of Las Vegas, N. M., whither he went in an effort to save his child from tuberculosis.

Shortly afterward Mr. Morley purchased a ranch a short distance from Las Vegas at a tax sale. That was the beginning of his prosperity. He bought more land and sold it at a large profit and within two years was the owner of a tract known as the Phoenix ranch, comprising 2,570 acres, which he purchased for $70,000. This property is worth more than three times what Mr. Morley paid for it.

Then the minister branched out still further, purchasing a 1,000 acre farm in Kansas near Kansas City, which is valued at $150,000; two farms in Illinois and one in Wisconsin. And all the time he never missed a Sunday in his pulpit nor a Wednesday evening prayer meeting.

The purchase of the Kenwood is the preacher's last venture in finance. John A. Drake was the owner of this property, which fronts 150 feet on Kenwood avenue and 100 feet on 47th street. He sold it to Mr. Morley for $400,000, taking in part payment the Phoenix ranch, valued at $250,000. The minister assumed an encumbrance of $150,000.

Building Has 48 Apartments. Newton B. Laurens, C. F. Adams and J. C. Linn negotiated the transaction. The Kenwood is an eight story fireproof building containing 48 apartments of from four to twelve rooms each.

The minister, who has demonstrated that the pulpit is not entirely a bar to the winning of wealth, was born on a farm near Fulton, Ill., just across the Mississippi river from Clinton, Ia. His parents were hard working folk, who made several sacrifices to send their son to Fulton college, which he entered in 1881. He was graduated with honors and after teaching several years he became president of the institution.

In 1897 Mr. Morley married and entered the Methodist ministry. While at the Moreland church his wife died, leaving two daughters. A few years later Mr. Morley married Miss Marion Bull of Rockford, Ill. For a short time he served in a missionary appointment at Riverside, and it was while he was at Oak Park that his daughter's health failed and he was compelled to go west.

LEAGUE GUIDE BOOK HAS BEEN ISSUED

Reach's official American league guide for 1909, published by the A. J. Reach company of Philadelphia, and edited by Mr. Francis C. Richter, of "Sporting Life," is out, and is as usual, first in the field, thus making it the harbinger of the baseball season. It can be said without any qualification that excellent as all of the editions of the Reach Guide have been in recent years, the 1909 Reach Guide is the best hand book of the kind ever issued by this or any other publisher. The special distinction of the 1909 Guide is, next to the text, quality of paper used and the number and beauty of engravings furnished, the world's championship series being especially well dowered with splendid action pictures. The American League Guide for 1909 is in all respects a first class hand book of the national game and a decided credit to the American league and to the publishers, the Reach company. This is the eighth annual issue of the Reach Guide as the official hand book of the American league, and the twenty-seventh consecutive year of its publication as a book of record and reference for the entire baseball world.

The American League Field. The book gives a complete review of the American league's eighth eventful season as a major league; complete records and averages of the American league 1908 race and players; a graphic story of the American league's part in the memorable post-season's world's championship series of 1908; a synopsis of all remarkable American league pitching feats and also of all the noteworthy games of the 1908 season; and a general review of all matters affecting the American league during the whole of 1908 up to date of publication. In this section is also given a review of the remarkable happenings during the 1908 race. The illustrations comprise portraits of President Johnson, Publisher A. J. Reach, Editor F. C. Richter; a group picture of the American league umpires; pictures of the champion batsman, Ty Cobb; of the leading base runners, Dougherty and Hemphill, and of the leading pitcher, Ed Walsh; and specially designed group pictures of all the American league teams of 1908. It may be justly said that these illustrations alone are worth more than the moderate price of the volume.

The Field at Large. The National league race of 1908 is also fully treated and exhaustive averages of the National league players are furnished, together with portraits of players Wagner, Murray, Loperi and Reulbach; and, especially designed group pictures of all 1908 National league teams in the order in which they finished. The minor league field has been more exhaustively covered than ever before, and the records and averages of no less than thirty-three minor leagues are given in full, together with group pictures of champion teams of nearly all leagues.

PIMPLES

"I tried all kinds of blood remedies which failed to do me any good but I have found the right thing at last. My face was full of pimples and black heads. After taking Cascarets they all left. ## A LIBERAL OFFER

E. G. Murphey Guarantees to Cure
Dyspepsia—if He Fails the Medicine Costs Nothing.

To unquestionably prove to the people of East Las Vegas that indigestion and dyspepsia is curable and that Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets will effect the cure, I will furnish the medicine absolutely free if it fails to give complete satisfaction to anyone giving it a trial.

The remarkable success of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets is largely due to the new and successful method of manufacture, whereby the well-known properties of bismuth, subnitrate and pepsin have been combined with carminatives and their agents.

Bismuth subnitrate and pepsin are recognized by the entire medical profession as specifics for acute indigestion and dyspepsia.

The pepsin used in Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets is manufactured by a new process which develops its greatest efficiency. Pepsin supplies to the digestive apparatus one of the most important elements of the digestive fluid, and exerts a tonic influence upon all the glands which supply all the other elements necessary to proper assimilation and digestion.

The carminatives add properties which promptly relieve the disturbances and pain caused by undigested food.

The perfect combination of these ingredients make a remedy absolutely incomparable and invaluable for the complete cure of indigestion and dyspepsia.

I am so positively certain of this that I sell Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets on my own personal guarantee that they will either cure you or cost you nothing. Three sizes: 25c, 45c and 89c. E. G. Murphey, corner of Douglas avenue and Sixth street.

Best Treatment For Colds.

"Most ordinary colds will yield to the simplest treatment," says the Chicago Tribune, "moderate laxatives, hot foot baths, a free perspiration and an avoidance of exposure to cold and wet after treatment." While this treatment is simple, it requires considerable trouble, and the one adopting it must remain in doors for a day or two, or a fresh cold is almost sure to be contracted, and in many instances pneumonia follows. Is it not better to pin your faith to an old, reliable preparation like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, that is famous for its cures of colds and can always be depended upon? For sale by all dealers.
